

The one email they hope you never see!

State law makes it illegal for AFT Washington to send any kind of legislative information to work email addresses. If you want to know what's going on in the legislature on education and worker-friendly legislation, you must sign up to receive information at your personal email or home address. Yes! I would like to be on AFT Washington's "GetActive" list. I understand I can unsubscribe to GetActive at any time.
